

A historical map of London, showing the River Thames and the city's layout. The text 'star & garter' is overlaid in a dark blue, serif font. Below the text is a decorative flourish consisting of a series of interlocking loops and swirls, also in dark blue. The map is rendered in a light, aged color palette, with buildings and streets shown in fine lines and shading. A large, irregularly shaped area in the upper left is labeled 'ST. JAMES'S PARK'. The overall style is that of a classic historical map with a modern graphic overlay.
